

SUNY CORTLAND KIDS CLUB

Hey kids! How would you like to be a member of an exclusive club just for young Red Dragon sports fans like you? By joining the Cortland Kids' Club, you'll get the opportunity to cheer on the Red Dragons for the 2013-14 season. You will also receive a Kids' Club membership card that will grant you and one adult access into most Red Dragon athletic events. Membership is FREE!! Please email the athletic department at sunycortlandathletics@gmail.com for more information.

CORTLAND 2-1-1

"Helpful. Caring. Supportive." These are just a few of the words people have used to describe 2-1-1 Cortland. Whether you're looking for recreational activities, afterschool programs, or childcare - 2-1-1 has got you covered. Simply dial 2-1-1 to chat live with a trained community services specialist or visit www.211cortland.org to explore the comprehensive database of health and human services. Get connected. Get answers.

YWCA 2014 ULTIMATE SUMMER BUCKET LIST

- YWCA Summer Care and Recreation Program: 8 weeks running from June 30 until August 29th
- Registration will be open early April, space is limited
- Each week will have a new and exciting theme where campers can choose what they want to "check off their bucket-list". Join us for a summer like never before where the campers try new things from dancing, painting, hiking, traveling, swimming, tasting and much more! $140 dollars per week, which includes snack, lunch, swimming, fieldtrips and much more! Kids in action, doing fun stuff and being able to say, "Hey, I did that!"
- Sibling discounts and part-time attendance is AVAILABLE
- CALL THE YWCA AT 753-9651 FOR MORE INFORMATION! CONTACT PERSON: JANICE MEYER, SUPERVISOR
- THE YWCA SUMMER CAMP IS A PLACE WHERE KIDS CAN BE KIDS, HAVE FUN WITH FRIENDS AND ACCOMPLISH MANY THINGS! MOST OF ALL CREATING A SUMMER FULL OF FOND MEMORIES...

THE CORTLAND FREE LIBRARY

Located at 32 Church Street in downtown Cortland, is more than just great books. The library offers a variety of materials including audiobooks, video games, DVDs, VHS tapes, music cds, and downloadable ebooks and audiobooks. The library also offers children, teens, and families a place to read, use computers, play board games, and other activities. In addition to being a gathering place for families, the Cortland Free Library also offers programs for youth of all ages. Join us on Tuesday mornings at 10:30 a.m. for a baby/toddler storytime for ages 6 mo. - 2 yrs. A preschool storytime for ages 2-5 is held on Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m. For more information about library programs and services call 753-1043. Information can also be found on our website, www.cortland-freelibrary.org.

CORTLAND CHILD DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM'S SUMMER SUNSATIONS

Are you looking for safe, and reliable care for your child(ren) this summer? The Cortland Child Development Center's School-Age program is now taking applications for their 17th annual Summer Sunsatons day camp which will run from June 30th through August 22nd. We offer a variety of hands on art and physical activities, weekly field trips, and nutritious meals. We have well trained, experienced staff who are looking forward to playing with your children all summer long. We also offer income based scholarships, and sibling discounts. For more information, or registration packets you may contact Elin, Sarah or Courtney at 607-758-9325, or visit our website at <http://cdcschoolageprogram.weebly.com/>

HealthyNOW TEENS

A free program for grades 4-10 that encourages an active lifestyle and healthy eating. Sessions offer fun and safe activities, healthier choices, and new friendships! Take advantage of working one-on-one with mentors, fitness advisors, and health professionals and develop a support system that could last a lifetime! Program also offers prizes for participation and achievements, contact Phil Buckenmeyer 607-753-4300 to find out when the next session starts and read more about the program at www.healthynowteen.blogspot.com

PUZZLE SOLVERS

Our mission is simple... to provide resources, increase awareness and raise funds for families and individuals impacted by autism spectrum disorder so that they can enhance their quality of life. Puzzle Solvers can refer you to programs and services, assist you in identifying needs, support you through change, and provide unbiased guidance along with much more. We are located in the Finger Lakes Region of New York State and currently serve the central New York Region with a specific focus on Cortland and contiguous counties. Planned events include: Annual Walk/Run, Light It Up Blue Campaign, Annual Golf Tournament, and Family Fun Nights. Check us out on Facebook: Puzzle Solvers, visit our website at www.puzzlesolvers.org, or email us at puzzlesolvers1@yahoo.com.