Chiefs Report:

Chief Friedman:

Both Heidi and Devon have offered a letter of resignation. Both of them will be leaving on April 20, 2022. Devon will be working until the 20th. Heidi will be using accrued time off until the 20th.

Our out of service turn that can no longer be used was donated to Ukraine. Pavel Androchshuk was instrumental in getting this to happen and still has family in the country.

Covid update

PESH violation was released and we are in compliance after installing reverse osmosis machines at the armory. We are moving forward with having PESH come back with a compliance inspection to see how we can improve all of our facilities moving forward.

Chief Friedman had an opportunity to teach the Captain training series for FDNY.

Chief TenKate:

New 242 is at the armory awaiting decals and will be placed in service soon

Two new Tahoe's came in and they are at priority fire to get lights and radios put in them.

BC Reynolds:

Great job at the fire at 76 Clinton. Crews made an aggressive attack on the fire keeping it contained to the area of origin.

Easter Bunny will be out on Saturday visiting fifty different houses in the City. Special thanks to Andrea and the CYB for teaming up to make this happen again this year.
